Dripping Springs lacrosse receives honors

The Dripping Springs Lacrosse team completed its most successful season in 8-6, Son ofPitching 8-7, I Love Bobbies 7-5, Zeros 6-7, Conglomerates 6-7, UnWanted 0-6, 9-4 and Zeros 12-5. Weird 6-7, Conglomerates 6-7, Vaya Con up being forfeitures. only three of the ten games numbers to have games and did not show up in sufficient interfered with four nights could get underway. Rain end so the summer league was forced to come to an

From Staff Reports

The event truly was a truly special.” says Jennifer Young, Physical community came out to show their support as well,” says Vicky Sparrow, Director of RED Arena. “You can see riders who have been victims of natural disasters. Town & Country Hunter Derby, and 2'6” Hunter Derby and a 2'6”-3” Trail” and “Trail” and coordinating various services such as: therapy horses as an essential part of treatment for people with disabilities. RED Arena provides a therapeutic environment where individuals with disabilities that stand, and unconditional- ly accepted while utilizing facilities for equine-assisted therapy and activities to people with disabilities and their families, opportunities for gaining self-esteem as well as providing sancequestrian, Suzanne comes from a Horse Racing family. A prize list and entry form is available by emailing suzanne@belcanto farms.com. Bel Canto Farms is located at 4007 Lone Man Mountain Rd., Wimberley, Texas 78676.

For more information or to learn about how you can participate, volunteer or sponsor next year’s event, please visit our website at www.redarena.org and click on the RED Arena Roundup tab. RED Arena is a 501(c)3, non-profit corporation dedicated to empowering individuals with disabilities through the use of therapy horses.

RED Arena receives honors in Wimberley and the Surrounding areas since 2005. The organization is comprised of both professional and amateur musicians along with college and younger students. LOPE provides local Rodeos, Tournaments and Horseshow events for new careers after their racing days end. Horses with Opportunities serves riders who participate in physical, occupational and rehabilitation for veterans and has a new programming for fiscal year 2016)

Details are available at: My Neighbor’s Keeper on Facebook

Additional show proceeds will benefit Wimberley’s own Starlight Symphony and LOPE Texas. The Starlight Symphony has been performing FREE concerts in Wimberley and the Surrounding areas since 2005. The organization is comprised of both professional and amateur musicians along with college and younger students. LOPE provides local Rodeos, Tournaments and Horseshow events for new careers after their racing days end. The Wimberley Classic was founded by Suzanne Wimberley-Carstens, located in Wimberley, AMD Vehicles with The Starlight Symphony since 2007. A Riding equestrian, Suzanne comes from a Horse Racing family. A prize list and entry form is available by emailing suzanne@belcanto farms.com. Bel Canto Farms is located at 4007 Lone Man Mountain Rd, Wimberley, Texas 78676. Details are available at: My Neighbor’s Keeper on Facebook

Spring adult softball ends

The event had 50 riders participating in various rodeo ride events such as “Ring Race”, Trail” and “Mutton Bustin’; and over 300 people from in and around the greater Austin and Dripping Springs area were in attendance.

The event truly was a benefit for all the riders and all the families of riders. Rain interfered with four nights could get underway. Rain end so the summer league was forced to come to an Bradley Nefford is in trail event for Hans with volunteer Maddie Kennedy, physical therapist Lori French and horse handler Teresa Strickland.

Dripping Springs holds fifth annual Round Up Event

RED Arena holds fifth annual Round Up Event

flood relief

Wimberley Classic Horseshoe to benefit My Neighbor’s Keeper

in light of the recent Wimberley and Hill Country areas floods, Bel Canto Farms in beautiful Wimberley Texas is pleased to host the 4th Annual Wimberley Classic Horse Show on Saturday, June 20th to benefit Wimberley’s flood victims. Wimberley’s Starlight Symphony Orchestra and LOPE Texas.

The event was held at Red Arena (Riding Education for Individuals) located just south of Hill.

Weather permitting, summer league action will begin on June 9 and run through the third week of August. Games begin at 7:00 pm each and lasts until approximately 9:30.

RED Arena is a 501c3, nonprofit corporation dedicated to empowering individuals with disabilities that stand, and unconditional-ly accepted while utilizing horses as an essential part of the treatment team.

Additional show proceeds will benefit Wimberley’s own Starlight Symphony and LOPE Texas. The Starlight Symphony has been performing FREE concerts in Wimberley and the Surrounding areas since 2005. The organization is comprised of both professional and amateur musicians along with college and younger students. LOPE provides local Rodeos, Tournaments and Horseshow events for new careers after their racing days end. The Wimberley Classic was founded by Suzanne Wimberley-Carstens, located in Wimberley, AMD Vehicles with The Starlight Symphony since 2007. A Riding equestrian, Suzanne comes from a Horse Racing family. A prize list and entry form is available by emailing suzanne@belcanto farms.com. Bel Canto Farms is located at 4007 Lone Man Mountain Rd, Wimberley, Texas 78676. Details are available at: My Neighbor’s Keeper on Facebook

For more information or to learn about how you can participate, volunteer or sponsor next year’s event, please visit our website at www.redarena.org and click on the RED Arena Roundup tab. RED Arena is a 501(c)3, non-profit corporation dedicated to empowering individuals with disabilities through the use of therapy horses.

RED Arena provides a variety of services such as facilities for equine-assisted therapy and activities to people with disabilities and their families, opportunities for gaining self-esteem as well as providing sanc-

For more information or to learn about how you can participate, volunteer or sponsor next year’s event, please visit our website at www.redarena.org and click on the RED Arena Roundup tab. RED Arena is a 501(c)3, non-profit corporation dedicated to empowering individuals with disabilities through the use of therapy horses.

RED Arena provides a variety of services such as financially burdened and is always able to participate in programs offered at RED Arena. Additionally, RED Arena offers full scholarships to military veterans and families experriencing financial hardships so that they can pay nothing.

“Many rangers during Round Up allows us to ensures access to our programs regardless of ability to pay,” Young said.

For more information or to learn about how you can participate, volunteer or sponsor next year’s event, please visit our website at www.redarena.org and click on the RED Arena Roundup tab. RED Arena is a 501(c)3, non-profit corporation dedicated to empowering individuals with disabilities through the use of therapy horses.

RED Arena provides a variety of services such as

facilities for equine-assisted therapy and activities to people with disabilities and their families, opportunities for gaining self-esteem as well as providing sanc-

For more information or to learn about how you can participate, volunteer or sponsor next year’s event, please visit our website at www.redarena.org and click on the RED Arena Roundup tab. RED Arena is a 501(c)3, non-profit corporation dedicated to empowering individuals with disabilities through the use of therapy horses.

RED Arena provides a variety of services such as